Decisive defeat threatens the nine German armies on the western battle front as a result of the rapid advance of the British troops southward in Flanders, and the Franco-American advance northward from the Meuse river to the Aisne. The "bottle neck" through which the French pressed on seven miles yesterday.

French troops today renewed their attack over a front of nearly 100 miles between Sambré and the Argonne forest and another great battle is raging in Flanders.

The German base at Guise has been taken by the French and it is believed that the Allies are now in

U. S. TO BACK RUMANIAN FREEDOM

Assured Her Claims Will be Given
Consideration—Status of Bolsheviki.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Nov. 6.—That the United States intends that those nations which were despoiled by Germany are to be given every possible consideration at the coming peace conference was made plain here this afternoon. Secretary of State Robert Lansing, in a communication to the charge d'affaires, ad interim, of Rumania told him that the claims of that nation would be given complete consideration at the peace council. However, it is also pointed out that in the case of Russia the present Bolshevik government never has been recognized, so that when that nation's claims come up for consideration, it is expected that it will be a real Russian government whose interests will be safe-guarded.

The text of today's communication was as follows:
Sir,
The government of the United States has constantly had in mind the future welfare and integrity of Rumania as a free and independent country and prior to the existence of a state of war between the United States and Austria-Hungary a message of sympathy and appreciation was sent by the president to the King of Rumania.

Conditions have changed since that time and the president accordingly desires me to inform you that the government of the United States is not unmindful of the aspirations of the Rumanian people without as well as within the boundaries of the kingdom. It has witnessed their struggles and sufferings and sacrifices in the cause of freedom from their enemies and their oppressors. With the spirit of national unity and the aspirations of the Rumanians everywhere the government of the United States deeply sympathizes and will not neglect at the proper time to exert its influence that the just political and territorial rights of the Rumanian people may be obtained and made secure from all foreign aggression.

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration."
(Signed) "ROBERT LANSING."
The American legation at Jassy was instructed by cable to convey the foregoing message to the Rumanian government.

THE ELECTION.

We are writing this comment too early in the day to enable us to mention results with the same accuracy as our late telegraphic dispatches, but this much is certain—President Wilson's attempt to make political capital of the war failed. His three particular friends, Champ Clark, Jim Ham Lewis and Henry Ford have been extinguished. Congress is apparently Republican in both branches. It will be a long time before any man tries again to make the United States a one-man country.

In our own State Governor Whitman's plurality of 162,000 two years ago has dwindled to almost nothing, and may turn out to be a minus quantity. In any event, the Governor's presidential ambitions are blighted. He can thank Boss Anderson of the Anti-Saloon League for much of his trouble. Had he not persistently meddled with matters outside of his gubernatorial duties, Whitman would be in a more comfortable situation today.

Ulster County has again demonstrated its firm faith in Republican policies and candidates, showing that our people have rather more than their share of the good sense existing in the country.

WEALTH DISTRIBUTION.

According to a report of the Census Bureau, the wealth of this nation in 1912 amounted to $187,739,000,000, the share of each man, woman and child being estimated at $1,965, a sum six times as great as the per capita wealth reported in 1850. As showing that the country has rapidly grown richer, this is highly encouraging; but what about the distribution of this expanding wealth? The report of the Census Bureau's findings does not answer this question. Such inquiry, though of great importance, seems to be left to the Socialistic writers who may or may not be reliable. The report merely shows that New York is the richest State, that Illinois comes next, that Pennsylvania stands third, that the per capita wealth of Nevada is two and a half times as great as the average for the whole country, etc., etc. An up to date report might show departures from some of these ratings, the greatest new accumulations of wealth being now found in the sections most largely engaged in war production.

The subject of distribution has been much discussed by Socialists. According to George K. Holmes, 9 per cent of the families of this country own 71 per cent of the total wealth. Charles P. Spahr contends that seven-eighths of American families hold but one-eighth of the national wealth, while but 1 per cent hold more than the remaining 99 per cent. John Graham Brooks declares in "Social Unrest" that 1 per cent of Americans are rich and hold 54.8 per cent of the wealth; 10.9 per cent are moderately well off and hold 32.2 per cent; 35.1 per cent are poor and hold 13 per cent; and 50 per cent are "very poor," holding no wealth at all. Whether the findings of the writers quoted are much more than the mere guesses of pessimists is open to question. Doubtless they would now make some changes in their figures, for during several years our highly paid wage earners have enjoyed a large share of "war prosperity," although the same good fortune has not come to the salaried classes farther up in social scale who in most cases have been called on to meet continually expanding prices for all that they buy while failing to increase their incomes.

But even now a far greater inequality of wealth distribution than there ought to be under desirable conditions is certain, and surely the subject is important enough to invite earnest study by our official statisticians. A government that claims to represent the masses rather than the classes ought to seek to ascertain the causes of a too unequal distribution of the country's wealth and endeavor to apply whatever sane and legitimate remedies that can be found. Even if no real remedy be available, the subject of distribution ought to receive official study and the findings ought to be published in order that the public may know whether the showings of the Socialists are misleading or not.

Prayer meeting will be held in the church on Thursday evening of this week at the usual hour, 7:30. There will also be the usual services on Sunday next, morning and evening. On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Alexander Smith, Mrs. Amy Sheeley, Mrs. O. E. McLain, Mrs. S. E. Mott, Miss Amy Smith and Jennie Smith were dinner guests of Mrs. Edward Ashton in honor of the 75th anniversary of the latter's birthday. The dining table, loaded with an abundance of good things, was tastefully decorated with two dainty baskets of flowers—the gifts of two little girl neighbors, Gladys Lyons and Elsie Ganoung—and a center bouquet of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ashton received a number of presents, among them a delicious birthday cake made by Miss Marian Mott. The cake was prettily trimmed with asparagus fern, rose buds and tiny American flags. Toward evening the guests were served with cake, peach conserve, cornea and candy and a little later departed to their homes wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day. Mrs. Ashton also received a "shower" of post cards from friends in Esopus, Schenectady, Brooklyn, Brotherton, Port Ewen and Kingston.

Mrs. Davis will be greatly missed both in the church and entire community, as she was a devoted church worker. She was active in Sunday school work, being in regular attendance. Her funeral was held from her late residence on Wednesday at 1 p. m. Interment was in Fairview cemetery at Pine Bush.

Mrs. Davis is survived by her husband, father and mother, and one brother and four sisters. Our sympathy is extended to her husband and friends in their sad bereavement.

Hazlie Trowbridge is threshing for the farmers in this vicinity.

Mrs. Byron Van Demark is slowly recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Dr. Sherman is in attendance.

Mrs. Denton Wilkew is spending a few days with her daughter in Kingston.

There seems to be little interest taken in the election here, and all the talk is war, and how we can win it.

Pride Always Stumbling Block. Pride brings many into error, and makes them sometimes fall into blindness almost incurable. Let the full of the proud, thus foolishly presuming on themselves, serve thee for a warning, and keep thee ever humble.—Thomas a Kempis.

Sweet Odors.

Sweet odors are of three kinds—the floral, the animal and the balsamic. The first group includes all those derived from sweet smelling flowers and plants; the second, those derived from animals and resins; the third, those derived from leaves and gums. The atmosphere of all perfumes is obtained in a three different way—distillation, maceration and enfleurage.

Virtue Can Be Overdone.
Selflessness and complaisance are beautiful virtues, but do not forget that a virtue carried to excess may become the most irritating and difficult of failings.

Soupage.
"Soupage" was the money payment exacted from Indians in lieu of personal service. The first instance of it occurred in the reign of Henry II. It enabled the king to hire mercenaries for his foreign wars and to dispense with the services of his troops and was to be regarded as a regular source of revenue. The right of the sovereign to exact it, however, was generally restricted by Magna Charta. It was also given as a reward.

the matter. Unless otherwise noted, therefore, the D. A. R. meeting for November will be held next week Thursday.

Child's Musical Training.
The child who shows marked musical talent in early years, together with a good voice, had best be allowed the opportunity of such musical training as he will receive in connection with the study of the piano, violin or other instrument for a few years, rather than exerting the powers of his immature vocal organs. The more of general musical training he has had the easier and more satisfactory will be his progress in vocal music when the proper time arrives for his serious study.—Exchange.

Nutritive Value of Apples.
Most people know apples are healthful. But a great many do not know that they are among the most nutritious of fruits and that their value as such is higher than that of many other foodstuffs commonly regarded as important. The nutritive value of apples is a solid and dependable food.

WASTE OF SUGAR

THE following bulletin was among the most forceful and effective bits of conservation propaganda at the New York Food Show last month. It was put out by the National Sugar Refining Company of New Jersey:

"Save the sugar!"

"One hundred million cups coffee used daily in United States."

"Seventy million cups tea used daily in United States."

"One hundred and seventy million cups tea and coffee."

"If even an average of half a teaspoonful of sugar per cup is left undissolved at the bottom of cups of tea and coffee the waste would be 1,700,000 pounds of sugar daily."

"Star your sugar until it dissolves. It's estimated that one-third to one-half of all sugars used in homes is used in tea and coffee. Think it over, how is it in your home? Isn't there a chance for saving?"

As the sun of life sinks toward the west

Life has been said to consist of a constant succession of breakdowns and repairs.

In old age, the former predominate. The body machine is more or less worn out. Digestion is less perfect, elimination of waste is increased in quantity, but reduced in efficiency.

Hence, constipation is particularly pernicious. Constipation means more than mere failure of the bowels to move regularly and thoroughly. It means stagnation of the contents of the intestine, increased fermentation, putrefaction and germ action, the production of irritating and poisonous substances, that are absorbed into the blood and carried all over the body.

This is always serious—in old age it is especially dangerous.

Constipation cannot be cured by drugs at any age. It is especially harmful to an aged person to use pills, salts, and similar strong purges in order to force the bowels to act.

But The Nujol Treatment for Constipation is not only safe, it is in every way efficient.

Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug.

Nujol helps nature to re-establish easy, soft, thorough bowel evacuation—as "regular as clock-work."

Nujol softens and keeps properly moist the intestinal waste.

Nujol makes it easy for the intestinal muscles to act, and prevents them from overwork.

Nujol absorbs poisons and carries them out of the body.

Get Nujol from your druggist and take it according to directions.

Warning: NUJOL is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Inset on Nujol. You may suffer from substances.

The Stroller Hears About that Bear Hunt—Judge Hasbrouck's Judicial Opinion Led to Deferred Killing—How Much Did Bear Weigh?

The last of the week John D. Schoonmaker received an urgent call that bears were damaging his property at East Branch, near Slide Mountain, and his superintendent urged him to take steps to exterminate the bears. So urgent was the call that Mr. Schoonmaker decided that the best bear hunting talent should be enrolled in the drive against the bears, and casting his eye over the names of Kingston's mighty hunters he selected Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck, who used to be a noted squirrel hunter. Robert S. Roulle, the coal baron, and Billy Van Slyke of Van Slyke & Horton, who served as a sharpshooter during the Spanish-American war.

With this galaxy of talent he hurried to the rescue of his property. This was on Saturday. The eagle eyes of Van Slyke located "ba-l-sans" on Sunday morning, and the hunt was trailed to its lair. Just as the other three drew a bead on the bear Judge Hasbrouck held up proceedings by stating that he was not positive whether it was against the law or not to shoot bear on Sunday. The trio waited while the Judge deliberated, and with a groan of regret they listened to the judicial decision that it was best to wait until Monday.

Monday at the break of dawn the four set out to trail the bear, who had left his lair—no poetry intended—and again it was the eagle eye of Billy that located his track and with relentless doggedness trailed old Bruin down the mountain. Then surrounded the bear. To which one belonged the honor of the kill is not known. All four claimed they hit him, but as all four guns were of the same calibre and only one bullet did the deed it was an open question. There was absolutely no way to identify the bullet. The four then carried the bear from Wild Cat creek where they had located him to their waiting auto.

They judged the bear to weigh about 400 pounds, but Judge John G. Van Eaton, who has had much experience in that line, placed the weight at over 500 pounds, and gave as his judicial opinion that it was one of the largest bears ever shot in the Catskills.

The next thing in order is a bear steak dinner, but just when that is going to be held is being kept dark.

WHITE ENJOYS PICTURES.

Also The Freeman and Other Home Reminders.

In two letters written to his parents, who live at 128 Broadway, Corporal William P. White of the 51st Pioneer, in France, describes the life led in his sector and dwells on the pleasure afforded by meeting men from the old home town.

The letters follow:

Tuesday, Oct. 8, 1918.

Dear Mother and Father: I thought I would write you a few lines this evening to let you know that I am feeling fine. It is storming hard and to keep my mind busy I thought I would do some writing to pass away the evening.

I haven't gotten any mail lately from anybody, but hope to get some soon. Well I'm writing this letter by the light of a candle in a small room with a nice little stove. I have four other fellows living with me. I'm the corporal of the squad and we get along fine.

When we first came in this barracks, there wasn't even a window in the place, but my boys got busy and stole everything that was in sight, that was of any use to make it home like.

Ed. Perry came over the other day to look at our place and he thought it was O. K. While he was here he asked about a hundred and one different questions and believe me I answered them all. You know it's great to meet a friend from your old home town. I showed him your picture in the bathing suit and he said you sure look good, big and strong. He wanted to know where the old Dodge was. I told him he was on the bench taking in the sights. I wish you could hear him "laugh."

We played Monday afternoon at one of the base hospitals for the patients and helped me you could see a vast difference in them when they heard the music. One of the patients said to me, "That's the best thing I heard in months."

Today was a good day for us boys. We all got paid and I'll tell the world it came in mighty handy. Your friends don't last long over here in this country with the froes, that's what the American boys nick name the French men. They think all the Americans are rich and when you go to buy anything up goes the price.

In this letter I'm sending this slip, this permits you to send me a Christmas package, but you have to comply with the statement on the slip.

Well dear mother how are you, and also dad, I hope you are both well at present, for it leaves me enjoying the best of health. All the boys say I'm getting fat and big as a house. Co. M boys say the old man will have to throw up the job when we get back I'll be big enough to fill his uniform, ask him for me will be willing to quit the job.

I haven't got any letter from him as yet. If I don't soon get one I'm going out and look him up and won't quit till I find him, and when I get him I'll bet him and I will have an argument.

Well before I close this letter I will send my best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Glen. Tell them I'm feeling fine and also that of the near by neighbors.

Well I think I'm at the end for the candle is going out. I will close with love to you and dad.

I remain your son
CORPORAL WM. P. WHITE
51st Pioneer Inf. Band,
Headquarters Co.

Sunday evening,
Oct. 13, 1918.

Dear Mother and Father: I received your welcome letter of the 15th and also those pictures. I was indeed glad to hear from you and that you are enjoying yourself. I haven't got so good going so often at the beach. Say I think the pictures are sure fine, especially that one where you are floating in the middle of the river, and of course the other view is good also.

I sure did enjoy reading the piece of the paper about Jim Sullivan. I'll say he is lucky meeting all the boys from Kingston over here. I haven't met any from home as yet. You asked me if I got a letter from Bro. Jim yet. Yes, I received one a few days ago, he said he was fine, and smoking a good old Meers, and reading a Kingston Daily Freeman, and wished he was back in Kingston at General Connelly's.

So Mrs. Maher and Mrs. Leddy from Boston were visiting you a few days and there was a nice girl with them. Gee, I'm just beginning to realize what I'm missing. It sure did make me think some, when you said you killed a rooster for dinner and how Jim always liked the breast, and me, the leg. You sure said home when you said I liked chicken.

So you saw a flying machine at Kingston flying around, I bet you thought the Germans were running away with us over here, but I'll say not. They got to show us Sammay's better stuff than they got to win this here "war."

Yes I heard about John Burns. The weather over here is rotten, all we get most of the time is rain and plenty of mud.

The New York papers tell you that we go over the top. Yes the Americans go over the top right along and believe me it looks like they are going to bring home the bacon. I think they will soon be walking around the rim of the Kaiser's hat.

I think we'll be home soon, but I think to him for the Harp's ball.

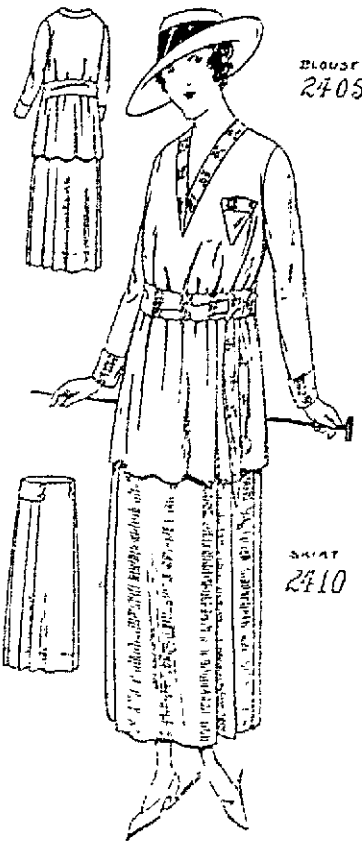

Well, dear folks, I think I wrote all for now so will close. Tell Pop I send my love to him and a big share to you. Hoping this letter will find you well and happy as it leaves me. I will say good-night.

From your loving son,

P. S. Here is a photo of my friend Sergeant Perry. Do you know him? Next time you write let me know what you think of it.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Good Outing Dress.

Blouse—2405. Skirt—2410.

Here is a style that is admirable for sports or outdoor wear. It will develop nicely in sport materials, chambray, gingham, pique, linen, voile, corduroy or repp. The blouse slips over the head. The skirt is cut on prevailing straight lines; the plait adding width without detracting from the narrow effect. It is a comfortable model and very stylish. The Blouse Pattern 2405 is cut in 17 sizes; 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. The skirt is cut in 7 sizes; 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34 inches waist measure. It will require 6½ yards of 44 inch material for the entire dress. The skirt measures about 2½ yards at the foot, with plait drawn out.

This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns, which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps, to the Freeman Pattern Department. Be sure to state size.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Let no pleasure tempt thee, no profit allure, no ambition corrupt thee, no example sway thee, no possession move thee, to do anything which thou knowest to be evil.—Franklin.

A FEW FROZEN DESSERTS.

An ice, ice cream, or sherbert or a mousse or frappe need not be either expensive of time or material. An easy-running freezer, a heavy block set with an old broom handle for pounding the ice and a good gunny sack to hold it while pounding will make the freezing light work. Use one measure of coarse salt to three of ice when freezing cream in the freezer. For packing either to ripen or for molding, one part of salt to four of ice is sufficient.

Velvet Sherbet.—Take the juice of three lemons, two cupfuls of sugar and a quart of rich milk, mix well, and put into the freezer to freeze. The milk will curdle but as it freezes it will be as smooth as velvet.

A pint of cream, a cupful of grape juice, a tablespoonful of lemon juice, and sugar to taste makes another delicious cream. Peach pulp may be used in place of the grape juice; with peach use almond flavoring.

Banana Sherbet.—Boil a pint each of sugar and water together ten minutes. When cool add the beaten whites of two eggs and the pulp of six bananas put through a sieve, with a half-cupful of lemon juice. Freeze as usual.

Chocolate Ice Cream.—Make a syrup of two cupfuls of sugar and a half a cake of melted chocolate and a package of gelatin softened in water. Cool and stir in a gallon of thin cream; flavor with vanilla and freeze. This recipe may be quartered for an ordinary amount.

Spanish Sponge.—To a pint of orange juice and one of water add a half box of gelatin which has been softened in a little water. Sweeten to taste and add the grated rind of one orange, beat the whites of three eggs, add the orange juice gradually and beat five minutes. Thoroughly chill a mold, line with sections of orange and pour in the sponge mixture. Serve with a lemon custard made with the yolks of the eggs.

ACCORD.

Accord, Nov. 4.—The Rev. Henry D. Frost, who has been pastor of the Reformed Church for four years, has resigned in order to accept a call to the churches of Lawrenceville and Sharon, N. Y. During his pastorate here the pastor and family have endeavored themselves to the hearts of many in this and the neighboring communities, and their decision to leave for new fields of service is a keen source of regret.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hartwig, of Ellenville, spent Sunday in town. J. Drake is preparing to move into J. M. Schoonmaker's house on Main street.

Mrs. Earl Drake and daughter and Lyman Deput, of Poughkeepsie, spent Sunday in town.

Ira Clearwater, a friend from Whitfield enjoyed an auto ride Sunday.

Communion service will be held at the Reformed church next Sunday, November 10. This will take the place of the regular December communion and will be the last church service conducted by Mr. Frost before his departure.

As all the ladies of the town have probably been registered, it is hoped that they all will be out to cast their first votes.

ACCORD.

Accord, Nov. 5.—Alfred Lawrence, a much respected citizen of this place died on Saturday, November 3. Funeral was held Tuesday from the house. Cause of death was pneumonia. He leaves a wife, who was Miss Phoebe Van Kleeck of Samsonville, and one son, Raymond.

Mrs. H. J. Knicker and Miss L. Muller were in Whitfield on Sunday and called on Mrs. Blanche Wilklow and family.

Sunday, November 10, will be communion service and the farewell sermon by the pastor of the Rochester Reformed Church. We are all sorry to have him leave.

George Patterson was in Kerhonkson on Monday.

Miss Maria Markle was in Ellenville on Monday.

Mrs. Earl Drake and daughter, Almada, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Deput and daughter are visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Deput.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend thanks to our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the illness and death of our loved one, also for the floral tributes.

"Gee! but it's nice to see a girl like you!"

It was in a hut at one of the training schools in France. He was a non-commissioned officer. He had been in France for eight months, and now was back from the front as an instructor. He hadn't seen a girl of his own kind, a girl like his sisters, for weeks.

And there she stood behind the canteen counter in this big, roomy, comfortable hut.

He bought a bar of chocolate. Then he drifted over to the group around the piano. Presently he went back to the canteen for a package of cigarettes. He strolled to the reading table and leafed over a magazine. Again he returned—this time for a cake of soap and some tooth-paste.

For a moment the rush at the canteen was over. He loitered at the counter and looked at the girl. She smiled. So did he. Then he blurted out what he had been trying to say for 20 minutes:

"Gee! but it's nice to see a girl like you!"

There are girls like that all over France—in camps, in towns, in the big cities—even at the front itself. They are serving the canteens, running restaurants, handing out hot chocolate or coffee, pies and doughnuts.

They are giving the huts a look of home—putting bright curtains at the windows, posters on the walls, making flower-gardens at the doors. They are mending for the soldiers.

But, most of all, they are just being there! They talk about the things that sound like home. Perhaps they know the very towns and streets and girls that these boys know. They bind together home and France! They are the girls beside the men behind the guns!

Without the organizations whose uniforms they wear, these girls could accomplish nothing. However eager to help, they could not even travel as individuals.

But with the backing of these established, recognized and regulated bodies, they can work wonders.

When you think of war as a brutalizing force, think of American womanhood working with the soldiers in this war—then give, to support the organizations which make this possible.

Ulster County War Chest

Let's Put It Across!

Send the spirit of home and all that "home" means to the boy you sent away "with a smile."

He Needs Your Help Now!

This once will do it. $200,000 for Ulster County will also care for local war work.
